

ESR

Ethnic Studies Review

The Journal of the National Association for Ethnic Studies

Volumes 37 and 38
Black Lives Matter Special Issue

Table of Contents

Black Lives Matter: Imagining and Realizing an Equitable Black Future
Special Guest Editor's Note by Ravi K. Perry .....	1
What the Black Lives Matter Movement Demands of Ethnic Studies Scholars
A Foreword by Melina Abdullah .....	5
#Black Lives Matter
Bahar Davary .....	11
Challenging the System? The Potential for Radical Politics in the Age of Ferguson
Danae Hart .....	15
Black Lives Matter: Decrypting Encrypted Racism
Basil Ugorji .....	27
Hyphy Sparked a Social Movement
Andrea L.S. Moore .....	45
The Black Lives Matter Movement and Why the Response of All Lives Matter is Misleading
Scott Loken .....	63
Against Critical Race Theory
Paul C. Mocombe .....	83
The Birth of a Cinematic Storyline Normalizing Violence against Black Lives
James Curiel .....	107

The Color of Mass Incarceration

Ronnie B. Tucker Sr. . . . . 135

Being in One’s Place: Race, Ontology and the Killing of Trayvon
Martin

A Postscript by Ron Scapp . . . . . 151