VCU Community Engagement Institute 2017

Tuesday, May 16, 2017

8:00 am	Registration, Coffee, Mingling
8:15 am	Welcome Remarks
8:30 am	Keynote Address (Vedette Gavin, Director of Research, Conservation Law Foundation)
9:30 am	Traditional Research to Community Engaged Process
9:45 am	Break
	21st Century Community Engagement (Lynn Pelco, Ph.D., Associate vice provost of Community engagement): The higher education landscape is changing, and universities of the future may bear little resemblance to the institutions that have existed for the past 100 years. This workshop will help participants understand the intersections between a changing higher education landscape and community engagement. Participants will explore new models for organizing academic work (i.e., teaching, research, and service) in ways that promote student success and address community-identified needs.
11:15 am	Community-Engaged Scholarship & Student Learning Lightning Rounds
11:30 am	Interest Area Networking Breakouts
12:00 pm	LUNCH (on your own) & Continued Networking
1:00 pm	Refocus & Reflect
1:15 pm	*Community-Academic Partnership Spotlight: Developing and Extending the Scope of Seymour's Living Learning Lab, Marcia Winter & CMOR
1:30 pm	Intro to Community-Engaged Research and Service Learning (Katie Elliott, MA, Associate director, Service-Learning, and Valerie Holton, Ph.D., LCSW, Director of community-engaged research): The purpose of this workshop is to provide participants with an introduction of community-engaged research (CEnR) and service learning (SL) at VCU. Academics will be encouraged to think of the 3 traditional aspects of academic work (research, teaching, and service) as doors that they can open to collaborate with community partners in an integrated portfolio of scholarship. Community partners will be encouraged to consider how community initiatives align with academic aspects of research, teaching, and service.
3:00 pm	Course Spotlight
3:15 pm	Coffee Break
3:30 pm	Reciprocity in Community-Engaged Scholarship (Valerie Holton, Ph.D., LCSW, Director of community-engaged research): Community-engaged research and teaching involve collaboration between higher education institutions and their larger communities for the mutually-beneficial exchange of knowledge and resources. This session will explore the extent to which community-engaged academic work benefits both the academy and members of the broader community.
4:30pm	Community-Engaged Research/Service Learning Breakout: This session offers participants the opportunity to receive shoulder-to-shoulder guidance from community-engaged scholars right here at VCU.
5:00pm	Adjourn
