As The Day Waned, The Class Parties Began —

"The 40th anniversary reunion of the class of 1923, dentistry, and the 45th of the class of '18, dentistry, was held on May 31 in the Patrick Henry Room of the John Marshall Hotel. We had as our guests several members of the class of 1913, Drs. Miles G. Conduff, Grover C. Honeycutt, Thomas J. Pearson, and William H. Perry. The highlight of the program was an address by Dean Harry Lyons, a member of the class of 1923. His subject was "Modern Teaching Methods for Dental Students of Today." Surely we have gone a long way in forty years.

"This anniversary was dedicated to Dr. R. L. Simpson, one of the great dentists of our generation whose enthusiasm for dentistry and the Medical College of Virginia was an inspiration to all who came in contact with him. It was Dr. Simpson who first interested Dr. J. B. Wood in giving one million dollars to MCV. The classes of 1923 and 1918 take this opportunity to salute the Medical College of Virginia on its anniversary, a century and a quarter of service to our state and nation," wrote Dr. Clyde B. Reese. Seated on the first row from left to right: Dr. Buford S. Burks, Mrs. Burks, Mrs. Preston M. White, Dr. White, Mrs. Evelyn Dirickson, Dr. Ralph Martin, Mrs. Harry Lyons, Dr. Lyons, Mrs. Dewey Boseman, Dr. Boseman, Mrs. Fred Worthington, and Dr. Worthington. Standing in the second row: Dr. A. L. Seay, Jr., Dr. W. Archer Bagley, Dr. W. I. Carpenter, Mrs. Leland S. Mabry, Dr. Mabry, Dr. N. F. Muir, Mrs. Clyde B. Reese, Dr. Reese, Mrs. G. G. Overholt, Dr. Overholt, Mrs. Job O. Belcher, and Dr. Belcher.

"The class of 1926, medicine, held their class party at the Executive Motel. Champagne par-excellence was served for the breakfast at 11:00 a.m. The breakfast was followed by a dinner that night. Favors and place cards were at the dinner table. The liquid refreshments were enjoyed by all. Dr. Philip Jones will act as party-chairman for 1964," commented Dr. George Chiles. Pictured on the first row from left to right: Mrs. Harry Walker, Mrs. Handy (visitor), Mrs. George O. Martin, Mrs. Richard A. Bowen, II, Mrs. Lewis C. Lush, Mrs. Webster P. Barnes, Dr. Henry L. Townsend, Mrs. Bruce L. Randolph, Mrs. Louise Wardell, Mrs. M. H. Seawell, Mrs. Philip Jones, Mrs. J. R. Grinels, Mrs. George Chiles, Mrs. Berkeley Gordon, Dr. Gordon, and Dr. Asa Shield. Second row: Drs. Walker, Martin, Bowen, II, Lush, Barnes, Randolph, Wardell, Seawell, Jones, Grinels, and Chiles.

After a lively reunion at the John Marshall Hotel, Dr. Simms said, "A lot of frast, but the spirit of the class of '28, medicine, still burns." Pictured in the first row from left to right: Drs. W. C. Elliott, Frank Mangillo, R. H. Reitzel, W. R. Southward, George Carter (non alumnus), E. C. Jayner, Claude L. Neale, William N. Thompson, and W. K. Dix. Second row: Drs. R. F. Simms, W. F. Fitzhugh, N. B. Jeter, A. C. Echals, George W. Easley, E. L. Shamblen, L. G. Bracey, C. R. Bowman, John A. Proffitt, Horace R. Hicks, G. Hunter Wolfe, Garrett Dalton, and James A. Soyars.

"This is a happy group of 1938 graduates which was the centennial graduation class. Some of the 43 returning members came from as far as California, Arizona, and Puerto Rico. Please note that these gentlemen didn't leave their wives at home. We intend to have the largest group back for our 30th reunion, percentage-wise; we did for our 25th and plan to do it again," said Dr. Page. Pictured in first row from left to right: Dr. Carl S. Lingamfelter, Mrs. Lingamfelter, Dr. John T. Jarrett, Mrs. Jarrett, Dr. Ralph B. Blowe, Mrs. Blowe, Dr. Norman E. King, Mrs. King, Dr. Earl B. Morgan, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. W. T. ## There's More To Go, Don't You Wish You'd Been Here!

"December '43'ers from the class of pharmacy were here on a 4 to 9 ratio. We were sorry the other 5 didn't make it! We thoroughly enjoyed the evening reminiscing and hearing of the activities and interests of each and chatting with Dr. Kaufman who is dean of pharmacy of Butler University," wrote Mrs. Patton. Pictured from left to right: Mrs. Jean Webber Payne, Dr. Edward Byrd Truitt, Mrs. Martee Goodwin Gleason, Dr. Karl Kaufman, and Mrs. Camilla Jeffries Patton.

"The class of '53 pharmacy got together at the Ember's Restaurant for cocktails and chatter at 6:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. We then reviewed our past ten years, and each person gave a brief account of his activities and his present location, etc. After this we were entertained by a singer who sang folk songs, which we all enjoyed. Our get together would not have been complete without the arrival of Dr. and Mrs. Warren Weaver on the scene about nine. We broke up around midnight and everyone seemed to have enjoyed the party," wrote Mr. Guy Rice. Pictured around the outer edge of the table, from left to right: Mr. and Mrs. Newton J. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. James V. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beasley, Mr. and Mrs. Austin W. Farley, Mr. and Mrs. Guy B. Rice, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Reuben B. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hilliard, Mrs. Barbara Moore Willis, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plunkett (Barbara Peacock). Seated around the inner edge of the table: Mr. and Mrs. James M. Thrower, Mr. Maynard D. Lundy, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Clyburn, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Darby, and Dr. Fred Rahal.

"The nursing class of 1953 had 29 members back—better than 50%. Notes were read and pictures shown from girls unable to return. Having Dr. Myra Williams Thornton, class sponsor, present was a real joy for each of us! Pictured from left to right around table: Betty Terrell Wilkerson, Lillian Butner Royal, Romona Perry Williams, Jane Tew Greenwood, Alice Lambert Smith, Joyce Hughes Gillespie, Hilda Robbins Taylor, Mary Sue Dail Hudson, Dr. Myra Williams Thornton, Jeanie Partin Sutton, Ann Lawless Grant, Clara Brauer Deyton, Katherine Robinson Kelly, and Elsie Glavich Quinley. "About half of the members of the nursing class of 1958 were able to return for their 5th reunion. Many others sent greetings to the group from as far away as Germany and all parts of the U. S.," commented Mrs. Durette. The party was held at the home of Nancy Kashner Durrett. Pictured left to right, first row: Nancy Kashner Durrett, Judy Weller Hylton, and Diane Diedrich Myers. Second row: Clementine Sadler Pollock, Phyllis May Longmire, B. Winnie Latham, Ann Bliss Murray, Cynia Katsorelos, Lee V. Fitzgerald, and Mary Jo Utt McNeer.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the Medical College of Virginia was held at 2 p.m. on June 1, 1963, in the board room of the Alumni House.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. W. Roy Smith. On motion duly made by Dr. Peter N. Pastore and seconded by Dr. Wynham B. Blanton, Jr., the minutes of the June 2, 1962, meeting were approved.

Dr. James T. Tucker gave the treasurer's report and commented:

Treasurer's Report

We take pleasure in presenting to you the statement of our financial condition as of December 31, 1962. Though our membership has increased, it only represents about one-third of the active living alumni. Can't you help us to increase this to at least 40% of the total?

You will also note that there has been an increase in the contributions over $10.00. This is encouraging, but there are many who can give more than they do and we call upon your generosity to comply if possible. If there is anything that we can tell you about or any services that we can perform, please do not hesitate to call upon us.

The fiscal year of the Alumni Association of the Medical College of Virginia runs from January 1 through December 31. The Association operates with two accounts.

JAMES T. TUCKER, M.D., Treasurer

On motion of Dr. W. C. Henderson, seconded by Dr. Harry Lyons, the treasurer's report was accepted. Mr. W. Roy Smith delivered his report on the activities of the Association since he had taken office:

President's Report

As we meet together today in the seventy-fourth year of our association's history, I am happy to have this opportunity to report to you some of the activities of your alumni association.

This year, the Alumni Association has joined with the administration and faculty of the College in celebrating the one hundred twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Medical College of Virginia. As part of this commemoration the Sixth Annual Scientific Assembly of the school of medicine, jointly sponsored by the school and by the Alumni Association, was held yesterday. We are indebted to Drs. Carolyn McCue and Robert Massie, cochairmen, for carrying on in such a good manner this established program of continuing education in medicine. It is worthy of note that this annual assembly is accepted for credit by the American Academy of General Practice.

Last fall, MCV President R. Blackwell Smith, Jr., suggested to your trustees that it would be fitting in this 125th anniversary year for each of the other major schools of MCV to also conduct scientific assemblies in conjunction with the annual alumni reunion; the cooperation of the administration and the faculty was offered; and joint-sponsorship by the Alumni Association was requested.

As a result of this suggestion, and with the diligent work of many alumni and faculty members—which is gratefully acknowledged—scientific assemblies were held yesterday not only by the school of medicine but also by the schools of dentistry, pharmacy, and nursing.

For several years, the school of dentistry has sponsored a three-day program in the spring of the year devoted to continuing education in the field of dentistry; and I deem it appropriate to recognize the burden which was cheerfully accepted by the faculty of the school of dentistry in undertaking another program following so closely behind their regular annual program. Our appreciation is extended to Dr. Richard L. Simpson, Jr., chairman and on the faculty of the school of dentistry, as well as to Mr. Ralph Ware and the faculty of the school of pharmacy and to Dr. Jean M. Hayter and the faculty of the school of nursing, for their efforts in presenting the scientific assemblies in their respective schools.

During the part of the year that has passed, several of the alumni chapters have held meetings and both the College and the Association have been represented at each meeting. It has been my pleasure to attend several chapter meetings thus far, and I look forward to the privilege of attending several more between now and the end of the year.

Each year your president is privileged to attend the meetings of the Board of Visitors of the College. I have attended three such meetings thus far this year. It has been a richly rewarding experience. The high caliber of the men and women who serve MCV with dedication under the leadership of their distinguished chairman, Mr. Eppa Hunton, IV, augurs well for the future of our alma mater as she continues to fulfill her mission of service to the citizens of Virginia.

Your alumni association has continued to lend its efforts in support of the College this year. Again this year as in the preceding five years, we are contributing $10,000 in payment of our annual pledge toward the $100,000 total pledged to the College for construction of the Alumni Lounge in the student dormitories.

The property at 1107 East Clay Street, adjacent to the Alumni House, which was purchased by the Association several years ago, continues to be rented to the Child Development Study group. The availability of this facility made it possible for this research project to be located at MCV. The study is now in its third year, operating on a grant of $413,000 from the National Institute of Health.

The floors of the alumni building which are not used for association activities continue to produce revenue for the Association from rentals. The Virginia Pharmaceutical Association continues to occupy the basement level, while the second and third floors are occupied by the Old Dominion Eye Bank, an intern, and a resident at MCV and his family.

During the past ten years, the growth of your association has been quite impressive and should, I believe, give us reason to believe that we can and should plan now for an era of greatly increased usefulness.

In the short space of a decade our total receipts, our assets, and our cash on hand have all grown in an imposing manner.

In 1962 our total receipts amounted to $50,863.92, an increase of nearly 65% over the $30,883.59 which was received in 1952. Our cash on hand, during this period, increased from $7804.41 to $30,149.18, an increase of nearly 300%; and our total assets have increased from $66,910.94 to $91,271.97.

The statistics on our membership growth are equally imposing and encouraging. At the close of 1962 our membership was 2763 as compared with 1144 only ten years earlier. Our membership now approximates 32% of living alumni, a figure which compares very favorably with other active alumni associations, but one which obviously leaves much room for further growth.

The one disturbing note in these statistics is the decrease in the size of the average contribution per member. The $31,180 in membership contributions in 1962 represented a decline in the average payment when compared to the figure of $18,834 contributed 10 years earlier by only about 40% as many alumni.

At the same time, the fact that our average contribution is quite obviously much lower than it could be, and the fact that we have as prospects for membership two living alumni for each alumni member lead me to believe that we have the potential for an era of greatly increased usefulness.

The progress made in the past ten years has been sparked by a relatively small number of dedicated and loyal alumni. With a continuation of their efforts plus the added efforts of others, I believe we can reach out to bring that era to fulfillment. What is needed is the development of well-conceived plans that will give each alumnus, through this Association, an opportunity to lend his own personal moral and financial support to the College in its mission of educating future members of the health professions and directly to the young people themselves, who aspire to pursue careers of service in these professions.

Much effort has gone into planning this year's annual alumni reunion, as I am sure you can tell from the program; and I know you will join me in expressing thanks to Dr. Wyndham Blanton, Jr., for his able handling of the onerous chores of the general reunion chairman. Thanks are due also to chairmen for the several schools: Dr. Francis McMullan for medicine; Dr. W. C. Henderson for dentistry; Mr. R. R. Rooke for pharmacy; and Mrs. Carol B. Cantrell for nursing; as well as to Dr. Hume S. Powell, banquet and social hour chairman; Mr. J. Edward Marks, dance chairman; Dr. Richard A. Michaux, luncheon chairman; Dr. Robert Irby, open house chairman; and Dr. Harold Nemuth, hospitality chairman.

Many other alumni have participated in planning for this reunion and I refer you to the printed program for a more complete listing.

In concluding this report I would like to extend my thanks to Dr. James Tucker for his outstanding work as editor of THE SCARAB, to the members of the executive committee and of the Board of Trustees for their guidance and support, and to Miss Minnie Franck for her continued loyalty and devotion to the work of the Association.

Before concluding, however, I should like to issue a reminder to each of you that our association, now in its 74th year, has only one reason for its existence; and that is to afford a medium through which the alumni can join together in concerted action to advance the progress and welfare of MCV and thereby increase its usefulness to the Commonwealth and this Nation.

The College has made truly remarkable strides in its 125 years of existence. Let us hope that our association will continue, and increase, its efforts to assist the College as it continues to go forward in its commitment to give the broadest and best training possible to young men and women preparing for careers in medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, nursing, and the related health-care professions.

Thank you.

W. Roy Smith, president

On motion of Dr. Peter N. Pastore, seconded by Dr. W. C. Henderson, the report of the president was accepted.
Dr. W. C. Henderson, secretary, gave his report covering the activities of the Association:

Secretary's Report

Minutes have been recorded for the following meeting and, as approved, have been placed as permanent records for 1962-1963:

Board of Trustees meetings at Alumni House—2;

Executive committee meetings at Alumni House—2.

Since the activities of the Alumni Association have been reported to you either in THE SCARAB, by committee chairmen, or by your officers, I shall not review them in this report.

However, I shall mention several items which seem to be of special importance. A Past Presidents' Club has been organized for the purpose of "forwarding the work of the Alumni Association and rendering assistance when possible for the progress of the College." An activity undertaken by this club last year and repeated this year has been to sponsor a social hour at the alumni house for the fifty-year graduates returning for reunion. This has proven to be a very enjoyable experience for the past presidents and one which seems to be appreciated by our guests. Another new function for the Alumni Association is sponsoring a social hour on the Sunday night preceding the annual Homecoming celebration at the dental school. This affair has become very popular and has brought many favorable comments.

Our alumni association is always trying to expand its scope of activities and to increase its service to alumni and the College.

It has been a distinct privilege to work with the officers; the board members; our executive secretary, Miss Minnie Franck; and alumni.

W. C. HENDERSON, D.D.S. secretary

On motion of Mr. R. Reginald Rooke, seconded by Miss L. Frances Gordon, the report was accepted.

The executive secretary was called on for her report:

Executive Secretary's Report

Thank you Mr. President, I'm almost inclined to address you as fellow alumni as I've grown to know and become fond of so many of you.

We want you to know how pleased we are with the new equipment we have been able to purchase, which makes for more efficient operation.

Since last reporting to you, I've seen many of you at chapter meetings, as the Kanawha Valley, which was started last year; the West Virginia; the Tidewater; Delaware Valley; New York; Northern Virginia, Washington, Southern Maryland; North Carolina; Valley; Richmond and at our gatherings at the Virginia Pharmaceutical Association, the Medical Society of Virginia, and the Virginia State Dental Association.

Please let me express my personal gratitude to all of these chapter officers who worked diligently to plan these meetings and to the officers and the Board for their untiring efforts in behalf of the Association. My thanks to each of you for all that you do to make it a pleasure to work for you.

MINNIE M. FRANCK, executive secretary

On motion of Dr. Wyndham B. Blanton, Jr., seconded by Dr. Peter N. Pastore, the report was accepted.

Mr. Smith announced the newly elected members of the Board of Trustees elected by mail ballot and reminded the members of the Association that the terms of the new officers and members of the Board would begin on January 1, 1963.

SEDATIVE ANTISPASMODIC

Each scored white tablet contains: ¼ gr. Phenobarbital; 0.0072 mg. Hyoscine Hydrobromide; 0.024 mg. Atropine Sulfate; and 0.128 mg. Hyoscyamine Hydrobromide. BELBARB NO. 2—Same as Belbarb but with ½ gr. Phenobarbital. BELBARB ELIXIR—Each 5 ml. is equivalent to one Belbarb tablet.

"The G-I tract is the barometer of the mind"

Belbarb soothes the agitated mind and calms G-I spasm through the central effect of phenobarbital and the synergistic action of belladonna alkaloids on the G-I tract.

Indications: Belbarb is of particular value in conditions associated with visceral smooth muscle spasm and tension states, such as anxiety reactions, nervous tension, visceral spasm, irritable bowel syndrome, urinary tract spasm, peptic ulcer and hypertension.

Dose: TABLETS: 1 tablet q.i.d. ½ hour before meals and at bedtime, or as directed by physician. ELIXIR: Adults: 1 teaspoon q.i.d. Children 3-12 years: ¼ to 1 teaspoon q.i.d.

Warning: May be habit forming. Caution: Do not use in patients with glaucoma or in elderly patients with prostatic hypertrophy.

Send for samples and literature.

Alton Dean Brashear

Time is a sort of river of passing events, and strong is its current; no sooner is a thing brought to sight than it is swept by and another takes its place, and this too will be swept away. Thus we mourn the passing of Alton Dean Brashear who died June 30, 1963. To him, time has fallen asleep in the afternoon of sunshine, for those who bring sunshine to the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves. His loss is severe not only to the students, faculty, and administration at the Medical College of Virginia but to the community at large.

It is unnecessary to recount his accomplishments in life, great as they were, for we all know them so well. One simple story recording an event which occurred in the last weeks of his life, as he faced the malady which killed him, needs to be told. It needs to be told because it exemplifies the tremendous courage, spirit, and sense of humor which undoubtedly dominated his life. The story is as follows:

One afternoon, during the series of diagnostic measures which ultimately detected his fatal illness, he was taken to a room where encephalograms were recorded. Later he related the incident to a colleague and said, "When they hooked the electrodes to my head I started to think and I thought big because I wanted it to look good." Alton D. Brashear always thought big; he thought big as a student; he thought big as a teacher; and he thought big as a citizen. From this bigness of thought came a kindness of heart that we all learned to know so well, and what wisdom can you find that is greater than kindness? He must have thought often of the words of Galsworthy who said, "I shall pass through this world but once; any good things therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any human being or dumb animal, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it for I shall not pass this way again."

Dr. Sidney S. Negus

Dr. Sidney S. Negus died on May 17, 1963. He was chairman emeritus of the department of biochemistry at MCV and public information director for numerous national and international scientific organizations and conferences.

Before his retirement in June, 1962, he had spent 50 years in teaching, 35 of which were at MCV as chairman of the biochemistry department. He taught nearly 10,000 students in his half-century teaching career.

His honors and awards have been many. At the 1963 annual meeting of the Virginia Academy of Science, he was a recipient of the academy's meritorious service award. In 1949, he was awarded the distinguished service award of the Virginia section of the American Chemical Society.

Dr. Jesse H. Weatherby

Dr. Jesse H. Weatherby, professor of pharmacology at MCV, died on July 10. He was an associate professor at MCV from 1936-1962 and taught in the dental, medical, pharmacy, and graduate schools. He was appointed a full professor in 1962.

A commander in the navy in World War II, he was a member of the Society of Zoology, Society of Pharmacology, and Society of General Physiology.

In his article in the May issue of THE SCARAB, he wrote, "Present-day students differ only in that they have somewhat greater potentialities than we had. Given a word of encouragement and an opportunity, they perform nicely."

School of Graduate Studies

The school of graduate studies began 1962-63 with a total enrollment of sixty students. At the commencement exercises held on June 2, 1963, the degree of doctor of philosophy was awarded to Edward Randolph Bowman, in pharmacology; John Paul Manning, in anatomy; Sorell Lee Schwartz, in pharmacology; Michael Ney Sheridan, in anatomy; Daniel Blosser Suter, in anatomy; and Robert Irving Taber, in pharmacology. The degree of master of science was awarded to Chowning Reginald Hall, in legal medicine; Lillian Sung Kang, in biochemistry; Hwalin Lee, in chemistry and pharmaceutical chemistry; and Justine Marie Murphy, in biology and genetics.

This is the largest graduating class of graduate students since the inception of the graduate program in 1934. Work for graduate degrees has been under way since that time to the present. From 1934 to 1947, the work was under a committee on graduate studies whose chairman was Dr. John C. Forbes of the department of biochemistry. From 1947 to 1957, the committee's chairman was the present dean who assumed the deanship in January, 1957, when the school of graduate studies was inaugurated.

During the present year, special activities and functions within the school of graduate studies have been carried out by the following committees: Procedures, Dr. L. F. Cavazos, chairman; Graduate Programs, Dr. William T. Hamm, Jr., chairman; Thesis Recording, Dr. Charles H. Hockman, chairman; and Interinstivancement of academic standards. During the present year, the graduate student body organization has functioned under the presidency of Mr. Elie S. Nuwayser, candidate for the degree of doctor of philosophy in the department of chemistry and pharmaceutical chemistry. It is noted with pleasure that the president of the Medical College of Virginia student body for 1963-64 will be Mr. David E. Janes, Jr., who is a candidate for the degree of doctor of philosophy in the department of biophysics and biometry. The graduate school extends him best wishes for a successful year as president.

School of Nursing

Ninety-nine nursing alumnae registered for the school's first scientific seminar on May 30. We were pleased, indeed, with both the number and the enthusiasm of those attending. Future plans call for continuing these programs in order that returning alumnae may benefit from first-hand information about the College and be provided with some of the latest information involving patient care.

Another innovation this year was a special pinning ceremony attended by graduates and their families. At this time the Florence Nightingale pledge was administered, and the names of those graduates receiving special honors and recognition were announced. We were delighted to have a large number of alumnae present for this impressive ceremony. Because we received so many requests for copies of the school song as sung at this ceremony, we take this opportunity to make it available. It is our understanding we are indebted to the class of 1953 who wrote both the words and music.

Hear the nurses' voices ringing
So strong and true and clear,
Singing of the happiness we find
Doing work we love so dear.

We have chosen this profession
And shall take our stand,
In our caps of white, without doubt or fright,
To help our fellowman.

Through the years we'll be loyal
To those who need our care,
And loyal too we'll always be
To the uniform we wear.

Dear Lord above please guide us,
This school of MCV.
Through our faith and prayer as we
serve mankind,
Lead us on forevermore.
With the guiding hand of God above,
We will share our life and love.
