No. 10: Go Tell It on the Mountain

(For Rap Music, to the Memory of Tupac Shakur)

I wasn’t gone forever;
I wasn’t gone for good;
Your dude had always known
He’d always be with you.

Chorus: Go tell in on the mountain;
Come sing it in the streets;
Go shout it down the valley,
That Tupac lives!

To be sung,
the other stanzas rapped

I’m back, I’m back, I’m back;
I’m back to be with you;
And though I leave again,
I’ll ever stick around.

Repeat chorus.

Those that killed my body
Had set my spirit free
To ever seek to be
With those I love like you.

Repeat chorus.

And so it’ll always be
Between my fate and yours:
United they will be
In good times and in bad.

Repeat chorus.

And let your faith be strong,
Though you live in fear;
And never cease to strive
For better days ahead.

Repeat chorus.

Our suns shall rise together
Towards that future time
When they'll cease to set
But ever shine and shine

Repeat chorus.

And so our moons will glow
And light our every night
And with their gentle beams
Caress our dreams with hope.

Repeat chorus.

Now you may raise your hands
And make the sign of love
Towards their hearts that make us
The target of their hate.

Repeat chorus.

And those who fear and tremble
That you and I may rise,
And therefore use their power
To keep us low or down.

Repeat chorus.
