The students performing tonight are recipients of the Jesús Silva Merit Scholarship for the 2015-2016 academic year. The Jesús Silva Merit Scholarship Fund was established in 1991 to assist talented guitarists in Virginia Commonwealth University's Department of Music.

Jesús Silva (1914-1996), world renowned guitar virtuoso and teacher, was Musician Artist in Residence at VCU from 1979 to 1982. Silva, a protégé of Andrés Segovia for over 50 years, was a graduate of the National Conservatory of Mexico. He taught at the National Conservatory, the University of Mexico, the Brooklyn Music School, and the North Carolina School of the Arts, where he established the guitar program. Many important composers dedicated works to him, including Manuel M. Ponce, Blas Galindo, Eduardo Hernandez Moncada, and Luis Sandi. Silva was also a distinguished poet, well-known in his native Mexico for two books: Corazón de Bruma and Río de Espigas. In 1992, the Columbia Music Company published his Ten Preludes for Guitar.

The Jesús Silva Merit Scholarship Fund was established and is funded totally through private gifts from individuals. Gifts of all sizes are welcome. Checks should be made payable to "VCU Music/Silva Scholarship Fund" and sent to: VCU Department of Music, 922 Park Avenue, PO Box 842004, Richmond, VA 23284-2004.
