For Senior, Junior, Sophomore Posts

23 Candidates Are Vying In Class Elections Today

By Sam Shield

Twenty-three candidates from three classes are vying for 15 positions in today's elections after a full week of campaigning. Beginning Monday 10 Student Government Association candidates will begin campaigns for next Friday's elections.

All students, whether class members or not, are eligible to vote between 7:45 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. today in the Rotunda.

The winners of the election will be announced in the April 23 issue of the Proscript.

But the campaign tactics of the candidates and the SGA Constitution received sharp criticism this week by Mike Boblitz, chairman of the SGA Board of Elections.

"Candidates have not stayed within the statutes set forth for the election by the Board of Elections," Boblitz said, "and because of the present SGA constitution the Board of Elections is limited in authority to rectify the situation."

"At present the Board of Election's authority stated in the constitution is out of date. The main reason is that it does not really tell the board of elections what it really can do."

Boblitz pointed out several flaws in the constitution, one of which allows a student to register a petition for office seven days before the election instead of at the time set by the Board of Elections.

"Another problem is that the Board of Elections has no way of checking the amount of money spent by a candidate," Boblitz said. "There is no way to enforce this rule. (The rule states that each candidate is allowed a maximum of $25 or $60 for a slate of two or more.)"

"Convention Every Year"

"The constitution should have a clause to give the Board of Elections the power to hold a convention every year at a set time before the elections. This is a must because a lot of students don't know the candidates that are running. Students could get to know a little about the candidates' backgrounds because nobody is going to vote for someone they know nothing about." (Last year a three-hour convention was held for SGA and class officers, but only a handful of students attended.)

Boblitz announced that a rally will be held between 6 and 7 p.m. Thursday on Shafer Court by the Board of Elections in order to present the candidates running for SGA offices. Speaker of the House Wayne Tucker will introduce the candidates, who will then give speeches. A brass band will be furnished by the School of Music.

"I must say that I expect to see more people voting in this election than in the ones in the past," Boblitz said.

"Under the influence used by the Proscript both last year and this year, the Board of Elections has improved election procedures."

"Voting this year is on one day as compared to three days of voting during each of the four weeks of campaigning last year. Things last year were drawn out over a

Annual Contest Will Seek Miss RPI 1965

Who will she be? Who will be Miss RPI, 1965?

The second annual Miss RPI contest sponsored by the Senior class will be held 8 p.m., Saturday, May 8, in the gymnasium.

Lin Weaver, Sophomore Interior Design major from Roanoke, was chosen to reign as Miss RPI 1964.

Sponsored by Senior Class

This year, the contest will again be sponsored by the Senior class with proceeds going to the Student Government Association scholarship fund and to the Senior class to help buy a class gift for the school and to pay for the class banquet.

The contest will feature a talent and evening gown competition.

Three judges from the community will choose Miss RPI and a Maid of Honor. Miss Congeniality

Eight Days Of Activity Are Planned

By Randolph Goode

The second annual Spring Arts Festival—(BANG!)—begins 8 p.m. Monday in the gymnasium with a "synthesis" on the cruelty, horror and uselessness of war.

The Festival will continue through the following Monday, April 26, with music, drama, choreography, films, paintings and graphics interspersed.

Last year the art department pioneered an event similar to the "synthesis" in which major emphasis was placed on a "Happening" in which unusual sights and sounds were featured.

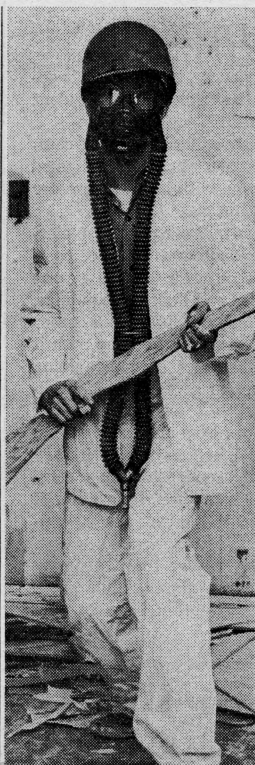

The entire Festival program met with generally good response from students and the public encouraging the commercial art department to undertake a broader program this year.

The "synthesis" Monday will be produced through sound effects, cinema-photography and pantomime to convey the theme in war there are no victors except the dead.

"Synthesis" was conceived by students and faculty of the commercial art department and will be performed by them.

Many instruments of war have been obtained from Army surplus stores. The department has built

School of Social Work Gets $50,900 in Grants

The School of Social Work has received federal grants from the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare totaling approximately $50,900. An additional $6,000 grant will be received in the fall of 1965.

The largest of three grants, a continuation grant from 1964 of $33,000, again will be used for supervised student work experience in the field of corrections. Four students and one full time faculty member will be assigned to either the Henrico County Juvenile or Domestic Relations Court for this work experience.

Another grant of approximately $13,000 is to be used for the development of a neurological and sensory disease service program, and the third grant of $4,900 for a supervised student workshop at the Richmond Cerebral Palsy Center.

The additional grant of $6,000, to be given the school in the fall of 1965, also will be used for three workshops in the field of correction. These workshops will be of three-day duration and will be financed with what is known as a short term grant.

Dr. George T. Kalif, director of the School of Social Work, said he has been assured that additional grants from the federal government, namely the National Institute of Mental Health and Vocational Rehabilitation, will be available to the school for 1965-66.

Got Spring Fever? Dance Tomorrow

To cure any spring fever, Dr. Feelgood and the Interns will play at a dance tomorrow night in the Gymnasium from 8-12.

The dance is sponsored by the Sophomore class and the Dance club. Tickets are $2 for Dance Club members and $2.50 for non-members. Tickets may be bought in the Rotunda or from any Sophomore class officer.

Minus Monotony

Another election season is upon us, but this one is going to be different, thanks to the efforts of the Student Government Association Board of Elections.

The four-week-long, seemingly endless period of campaigning and elections of past years has been trimmed to a compact two weeks' duration with hope for greater student participation in SGA and class elections.

Widespread apathy has been indicative of past elections. After four weeks, the monotonous maze of posters which confronted students on their way to classes and blanketed the walls, ceilings and floors of buildings, cafeteria, Rotunda, dormitories and numerous other places created an enthusiastic desire to be done with it all. Voting which climaxed the days of campaigning never drew more than a fraction of the total enrollment.

A flaw has existed in elections here and in its search for this defect, the Board of Elections thinks it may have discovered an answer. By condensing class campaigns and voting into one week followed by a week of SGA elections, the Board hopes to increase voter participation.

As a deviation from routine, rather than becoming routine itself, the new election procedures should prove more successful in attracting attention than in past years.

Campus News Briefs

The German club is offering a $100 scholarship to be given to a male student. The scholarship is to be used toward the winner's tuition.

Applications may be obtained at the Financial Aids office, 912 Park ave. Deadline for applications is May 1.

Applications for fall semester student teaching are now available at the office of the School of Education, 809 West Franklin st. The applications must be completed and returned to the office by next Friday.

The spring issue of the Image is scheduled for publication the second week of May, according to Ruth Meyer, managing editor.

The year's second edition will be basically a magazine of photography and other art work because of the limited amount of poetry and other literary works submitted.

The 1964-65 Image staff is in the process of reorganizing and selecting a staff for next year.

Applications may be obtained from the Student Personnel Office.

The first meeting of the 1965-66 staff will be held at 4 p.m., Friday, April 30, in room 2C of the Student Center.

The Richmond Youth Challenge will feature RPI Tuesday at its monthly program 7:30 p.m. at the Mosque.

The Challenge is a non-profit organization financed by private citizens that attempts to offer a challenge to young people through a cooperative religion-education approach.

The Placement Office has scheduled the following job interviews and company representatives for this month: April 20, Shenandoah Life Insurance, Mr. Kolb; April 22, Jefferson Standard Life, Mr.

Wood, and ARA Slater School and College Service, Mr. Mallon; April 26, U.S. Army Special Services; April 27, City Products Corporation, Mr. Baur, April 28, Spotless Company, Inc., Mr. Smith.

Appointments should be made in advance in the Office of Development, room 21, in the Administration Building.

The Student Government Association banquet will serve a two-fold purpose this year.

The banquet, to be held at the Sheraton-Monroe Motor Hotel at 7 p.m., May 21, will honor the outgoing Senate, House, and SGA representatives and introduce the new SGA president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and the speaker of the house.

Fifty persons are expected to attend.

The Collegiate Council for the United Nations is holding a conference today and tomorrow at Randolph-Macon College.

The conference is open to all area college students to help understand the organization of the United Nations.

Main speaker tonight will be Mr. Jan Van Wyk of the United Nations.

will be picked by the other participants.

The admission fee for entrants will be two dollars, and the contest will be open only to Freshman, Sophomore and Junior coeds.

Each organization on campus has been asked to sponsor a contestant. Applications may be obtained from the Student Personnel Office. Entry forms must be returned to the Student Personnel turned to the office by April 23.

Preliminary judging to narrow the number of entrants to 15, will be held at 3 p.m. April 28, in Shafer Street Playhouse. Faculty and non-participating organizations will judge the coeds in street dress for beauty, poise and charm.

Talent Competition

Talent for the pageant will be limited to three minutes for each contestant. Each coed will be expected to give a resume of what she has done at RPI, such as student activities and school functions, and offices held. A promenade of all contestants in evening gowns is also scheduled.

While the judges are deciding who Miss RPI 1965 will be, Herbie Pulliam, Freshman Art major from Appomattox, will do a comedy routine.

Norman Phifer, Senior class president, said he hoped the girl selected this year will be able to participate in school functions and perhaps represent the school in the community and state.

Parking Area For Cars Asked

The Richmond Parking Board has presented a recommendation to City Council calling for the acquisition of the block bordered by Main, Cary, Laurel, and Cherry sts. to be used for college off-street parking. The area can accommodate 800 cars.

five airplanes, numerous bombs and wooden rifles with bayonets. The program will employ 125 to 150 people and will run approximately an hour and a half.

On Tuesday at 8 p.m. a dance recital will be presented by Jill Johnston and a group of independent ferent programs each night will be presented by independent film makers. The films will be shown 7 and 9 p.m., Friday, and 2 and 4 p.m., Saturday.

Also on Saturday a concert will be given at 6 p.m. representing various types of music. Among those scheduled will be Mississippi John Hurt, the Virginia Choral Ensemble, the Country Gentlemen, an Armenian band and a rock and roll group.

Sunday, April 25, at 2 and 7 p.m., a symposium on communications will be given in two parts.

Drama students will present two one-act plays from the Theatre of the Absurd on Monday, April 26, to conclude the Festival.

Added to the program will be a eight-hour movie, "Sleep," beginning at 10:45 a.m., Tuesday. The movie shows a human being asleep.

Two $100 prizes will be offered in the Richmond Film Festival, April 23 and 24.

Tickets are now on sale in the Rotunda. Admission to all events will be $7 for the general public and $5 for students. Tickets can be purchased at the door for individual events.

All events, with the exception of the communications symposium, will be held in the gymnasium. The symposium will be held in Shafer Street Playhouse.

Throughout the Festival, art exhibitions will be displayed at Shafer Street Playhouse, the Fine Arts Gallery, the Student Center and the Steinberg Gallery on Harrison st.

ent dancers, composed of Yvonne Rainer, Lucinda Childs and Robert Morris. The group formerly was associated with the New York Judson Art Theater.

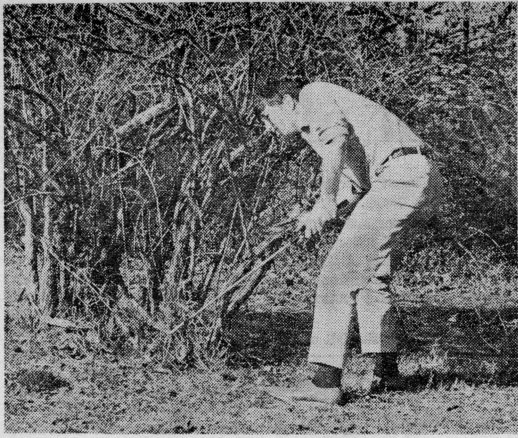

There is also a chance that painter Robert Ranschenberg will appear with the group.

At 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Jill Johnston will again take the spotlight with a lecture on advanced dance ideas.

On Thursday at 8 p.m. a four member panel will discuss the "demise" of abstract expressionism, the rise of Op(tical), Pop(ular), and Ob(ject) art, and the "crisis" manifest in American art since 1960.

The second annual Richmond Film Festival will be presented next Friday and Saturday. Dif-

FORE, FORE—Ed Rothgeb pitches onto the 11th hole after knocking his approach shot into hedge which surrounds the green. Rothgeb salvaged a bogey on the par 4 hole at Lakeside County Club where the Rams play all of their home matches.

Dixon, Rash Lead Unbeaten Golf Team

The golf team won its second victory of the season Tuesday and remained undefeated in a match with Bridgewater College at the Lakeside Country club. Tommy Rash, with a 75, led the team to an 8-1 victory. Danny Dixon, the Ram's number one golfer shot a 79. Both Dixon and Rash scored 6 and 5 victories.

"On such a windy and cool day, our two top scores were very good," Coach Dave Magill said.

Dixon decided over Paul Hatcher; Rash defeated Vince Gilmer; George Temple won over Dan Williams; Jerry Clarke defeated Dick Atamain; Howard Cla-bough decided over Mike Betts, and Don Moore won the only match for Bridgewater by defeating Bob Clark.

On April 5, the Rams, in a tri-meet match at Boonesboro Country club in Lynchburg, defeated Bridgewater College, 23-1.

The Rams' second match was played to a 12-12 tie with Lynchburg College. Dixon, with a 78, was the medalist for the day.

The match with Medical College of Virginia scheduled for last Monday was cancelled.

The team, with a 2-0-2 record, will play Randolph-Macon College Tuesday.

Tennis Squad Suffers First Defeat in 2 Years

The women's tennis team suffered its first defeat in two years Tuesday by losing a 3-2 decision to Lynchburg College at Pyrd Park.

The Hornets came through in the last doubles match for the victory when Kay Harvey and Elaine Jones defeated Bonnie Hudson and Dottie Kreeps, 6-1, 6-2.

The RPI women's team had compiled a string of nine straight victories since 1963 when they were beaten by Thomas Jefferson High School, 4-1.

Tunie Dooley, the only returning player from last year's undefeated squad, started the match off for RPI in good fashion with a 6-3, 6-3 decision over Virginia Boyd.

The number two player for RPI, Laurie Simpson, followed with a 6-2, 6-2 victory over Frances Simpson.

The Hornets tied the score 2-2 when their number one doubles team of Tricia Walker and Carolyn Walker defeated RPI's Patricia Stanley and Ronnie Levine, 6-3, 6-2.

Rams Win First 'Wild' Game, Play Randolph-Macon Next

By Larry Evans

The Rams won their first baseball game of the season Wednesday afternoon by bombarding Newport News Apprentice School, 12-4.

The Rams will kick off their Little Eight Conference slate with a game at Randolph-Macon College at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

With the score tied, 4-4, RPI came up with eight big runs in a wild seventh inning which saw 13 Ram batters take turns at the plate. Verlan Phillips singled and doubled, and the aid of three Shipbuilder errors enabled the Rams to pull out the game on the wind-swept Apprentice diamond.

The Rams pounded out 13 hits, and the Shipbuilders were guilty of seven errors allowing eight unearned runs to score.

First Win in Seven Games

The victory was the first win for the Rams in seven games. They beat the same team, 4-3, in 10 innings last year. The Shipbuilders were the only team the Rams defeated twice last season.

The baseball team suffered its second loss in as many contests when it was downed, 5-1, by Western Maryland College of Westminster, Md., April 2.

The Rams fell behind, 1-0, at the end of the first inning. The Terrors took advantage of two RPI errors and a single by Scott Joyner in scoring their first run.

Rams Tie Score

The Rams came back to tie the score, 1-1, in the fifth inning. Ed Coffman led off with a single to centerfield, Jerry Harding drew a walk and Milt Woody reached base on an error. Coffman scored on a miscue between the second baseman and the pitcher in an attempt to put out Woody.

Western Maryland broke the game open in the seventh inning when three runs were scored. Runners reached base on a single and a walk. Then, with two out, Joyner homered to right centerfield to put the game out of reach for the Rams.

The Terrors added an insurance run in the ninth on a homer by leftfielder Jerry Tegges. Tegges scored three runs and also starred in the field for Western Maryland.

Badminton Play Ends, Winners Regain Crowns

Tunie Dooley defended her title in the intramural badminton tournament March 31, by defeating Bonnie Hudson in the women's singles with straight set victories of 15-0 and 15-0.

In the men's singles Jerry Stone retained his title by defeating George Shaheen with 15-5 and 15-4 victories in the finals.

The mixed doubles was taken by Tunie and Shaheen in their victory over Bonnie and Martin Smith in the finals with a 15-7 and 15-11 score.

RPI had six base hits with Bob Butler's double in the seventh—the only extra base blow. Western Maryland had eight safeties, including two home runs.

Errors again hurt the Rams. Four errors in the field, coupled with 10 men left on base, did little to bolster the Rams' attack.

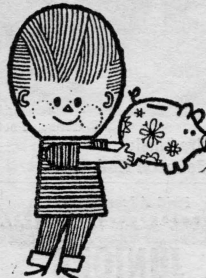

Milt Woody was the losing pitcher for the Rams with John Wilson picking up the win for the Marylanders.

First Conference Tilt

The Rams meet arch-rival Randolph-Macon in Ashland tomorrow afternoon. It will be the first conference tilt for RPI. Coach Hugh Stevens' Yellow Jackets have 3-3 overall record and a 0-2 conference record going into this week end's action.

RPI moves into full swing next week with one game on the road and two games at Hotchkiss Field. The Rams travel to Lexington Tuesday to meet Washington and Lee University.

On Thursday RPI will host Hampden-Sydney College and Friday, Old Dominion College. Both home games begin at 2:30 p.m.

Dooley's Queen Sandra Nash
Chosen by Residents of Johnson Hall

Johnson Hall Dormitory Plans Return of Dooley

Dooley will rise again, and this year Sandra Nash will be his queen.

The spook of Johnson Hall men's dormitory will begin his week of tomfoolery Monday. Dressed in his skeletal suit, Dooley will cavort about the campus at will, dismissing classes and pulling pranks.

The week will end with a record dance at the dormitory 8-11, Friday night, April 23, a picnic from 11 to 4 at Bryan Park on Saturday, and a dance featuring The Elegants, a local combo, at the dormitory from 9 to 12 Saturday night, where Dooley will reveal his identity.

According to tradition, Sandra, a Freshman Retailing major from Rockwell, N. C., will take Dooley's hand and he will rise from his coffin.

Sandra, the Senior Center representative, was chosen from candidates of all the women's dormitories by Johnson Hall residents to be Dooley's queen.

Sandra lists skiing and swimming as her hobbies. She is a member of the Cotillion club, Alpha Delta Rho and a representative in the Student Government Association House.

When asked how she felt of having been chosen queen, Sandra said that she was happy but didn't know yet what her official duties were.

According to dormitory residents, the parlor will be decorated to properly reflect "Dooley's Den." A cave-like entrance, three-dimentional monsters and "terrific" lighting effects will help to create the spooky atmosphere.

Transportation will be furnished for the picnic on Saturday, and women dormitory residents will be given 12:30 a.m. lates Saturday.

Tickets will be on sale next week in the Rotunda at a cost of $2.50 per couple for the entire week end activities.
