

Typical Off-Campus Student Is Friendless, Survey Shows

The average off-campus student here—a housing survey shows—is friendless while at school, has a low opinion of college cafeteria food and shuns extra-curricular activities.

"Sixty-two per cent of them say they prefer it that way," Dr. Charles M. Renneisen, dean of students, said.

The survey shows the typical off-campus student as being independent, most of them sophomores holding down part-time jobs while taking full academic loads.

Stressed in the survey, the Dean said, is a pressing need for more college participation in providing some form of housing. He said the school growth rate indicates that at least 200 spaces are needed for men by September.

A housing shortage for women is not as acute, the survey shows.

The study was prepared by students working under the federal work-study program. Dean Renneisen and his secretary, Mrs. Marlene Kemper, directed the project.

MOST ARE MEN

There are 1,125 day students living in housing not owned by the college or their families, according to the survey. Approximately 80 per cent are men, while 18 per cent of the 1,125 are married and 91 per cent are enrolled full-time.

Most off-campus students, 61 per cent, live within eight blocks of Shafer Street Playhouse.

The college is concerned that a high percentage of students, "55 per cent, cannot say they have a close friend here and many do not take interest in the college other than what time they spend in class," the Dean said.

"More housing of some type would bring the student closer to college-related activities."

The Dean suggested a large student union building would help make college life more meaningful to those living off-campus.

Additional housing is being studied by the Property Committee, he said, but the proposed merger of the college and the Medical College of Virginia is one factor "holding us in abeyance."

Future status of the physical plant will have to be ascertained before active pursuit of dormitory buildings can be given serious consideration, he said.

Off-campus housing, while providing for those who cannot be housed in a dormitory, is becoming less available in an eight-block radius of the college.

POOR ACCOMMODATIONS

And students who are able to secure housing within this area complain of high rent ($90 a month for an unfurnished apartment) and poor accommodations.

The study also pointed to a need for additional parking in the vicinity of the college.

Of off-campus enrollees 36 per cent drive to school.

Three new parking lots are called for in a 14-year master site plan made public last month. Also included were five high-rise dormi-

(Continued on Page 2)

Five New Degree Programs To Be Submitted for Approval

The college will soon take another step toward instituting five additional degree programs.

President Oliver said this week the education committee of the Board of Visitors will submit to the Virginia Council on Higher Education at its next meeting the proposed degree programs.

The new degrees would include the master of science in education and the bachelor of science in mathematics, physics, biology and chemistry.

The programs can be instituted as soon as the council approves them, probably going into effect next year if the council does not delay its approval, Dr. Oliver said.

He did not give the date of the council meeting, nor an estimated approval date.

Court Seeks Students

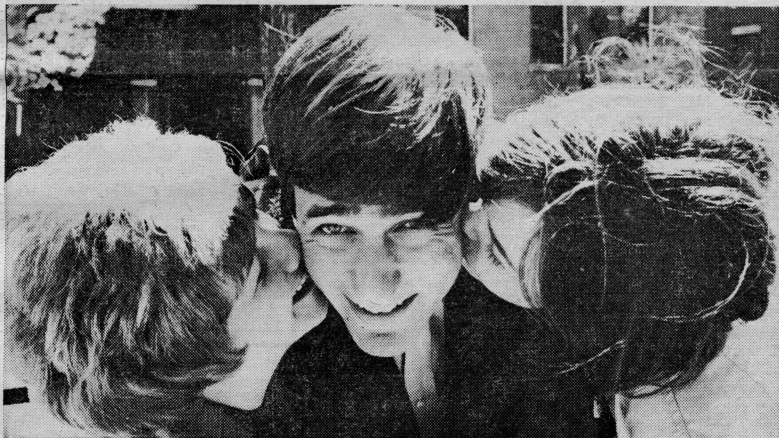

Students interested in serving on the Honor Court next year may secure applications in the Student Government Association office at the Student Center.

All applications must be returned by April 15 to the SGA

Swinging Sweetheart

Mary Elizabeth Kuchar, SSc3 Hardy, swings her way into the hearts of many after being named German club sweetheart. She will represent the club at dances and other social activities. Mary succeeds Lane Banister, Bused2 Richmond.

Two Kisses for the Price of One

Butch Robey, Mgt3 Richmond, was lucky. When the College Quota club decided to raise some money for CARE this week, everyone else was duped into buying Hershey chocolate kisses. Robey, however, was flanked by club members Diane Manley (left), Art2 Arlington, and Susan Shaffer, Psy2 Alexandria, and got the real thing.

Faculty Central Committee, Administrative Council Born

By John Edwards

A new Faculty Central Committee and a separate Administrative Council have come into existence. With their birth the old Faculty Council has dissolved.

The Faculty Council consisted of department heads and administrative members appointed directly by the Administration.

The new Faculty Central Committee is composed solely of faculty members (15) elected by the faculty itself.

Members of the Administrative Council include the President, Dean of the College, Assistant Dean of the College, Director of Development, Director of the Evening College, the Comptroller, the Dean of Students and the Bursar, according to President Oliver.

A committee headed by Mrs. Lois Washer, chairman of the School of Social Science, worked out last year the election procedure to be used in formation of the Central Committee. The recommendations for that committee read in part: "This is our opportunity to create a responsible faculty body to make known to the Administration and the Board of Visitors any recommendations the faculty wishes to make."

In December, the Faculty Council voted to dissolve when the two new organizations were set up.

Recommendations for better communications between the faculty and Administration were made in a self-study survey of the faculty last year. The new faculty committee, the first of its kind here, was formed as a result of this and similar studies.

Dr. Oliver said that the Central Committee will work primarily on problems relating to the faculty, but, he emphasized, "nothing restricts them from making recommendations on any situation regarding the school."

Results of a questionnaire sent to faculty members indicated a great

(Continued on Page 2)

In April 15 Elections

Students Will Vote On Honor Change

Students voting in class elections April 15 will have the opportunity to express their opinions on the authority of the Honor Court.

The Student Government Association House of Representatives decided this week to submit two possible constitutional amendments to voting students.

The two amendments, in complete conflict with each other, are designed to give the authority of revising the Honor Code to either the Honor Court or the Student Government Association.

The two proposed amendments read:

I. "The Honor Court shall have the power to revise the Honor Code upon unanimous vote of the court and with the advice of the Dean of Students."

II. "The Student Congress (the House and the Senate) shall have the power to revise the Honor Code upon a three-fourths vote and with advice of the Dean of Students."

Fifty-one per cent of those voting will be considered a majority student opinion, in the poll.

The question of Honor Court authority to revise the Honor Code was first discussed several weeks ago when an investigation of the Honor Court was proposed. At that time, the House refused to conduct such an investigation, but is now attempting to arrive at some decision regarding the disposition of such authority.

121 Students Are Named On Dean's List

A total of 121 students earned a 2.5 academic rating, qualifying for the Dean's List, the Registrar's office has announced.

The figure is 45 above that of last year. To qualify for the Dean's List a student must earn a 2.5 rating with no grade below a 'C' and carry a minimum load of 15 credits.

Richmonders who earned Dean's List rating are Nancie B. Adams, Eed3; Rose M. Alexander, Eed3; Margaret A. Benoit, N1; Katharine Burley, M3; Rita T. Busse, M2; Linda M. Carson, Aed1; C. D. Childress, Fash2; Ruth A. Clyborne, Eed4; Dwight C. Cornell, T2; Joseph A. Davis, Eed4; Patricia A. Deer, A4; Mason Dismukes, T2; Dale R. Dodson, Psy4; Bernice E. Downey, H4; Joan L. Ebright, Soc1; and Miriam L. Edge, Ped4.

Also Donald W. Flynn, A3; Glenda Carner, H-SSC2; Carolyn Giannini, Eed4; Nettie Gordon, A&C4; John A. Granger, Codis2; Montgomery Gray, T1; Michael D. Harlow, Mgt3; Russell Harris, Soc4; James Holderfield, Rel-Grad; T. B. Hollingsworth, Eed3; David O. Holman, Psy4; Marsha B. Hudson, Ped4; Emily C. Hughes, Eled4; Robert Jeter, Rel-Grad; William F. Johnson, Acc3; Nancy S. Johnson, Bused3; and Wayne L. Johnston, RL3. Also Betty G. Kenley, N2; Edward J. Kerns, FAS; K. A. Kilpatrick, Bus1; Gloria J. Krauss, Eed3; Carol S. Lamsinger, ID1; Grace R. Lemmon, Eled3; Marilyn Lieberman, H-SSC4; Francis R. Loftis, Dised4; Ellen V. Lory, Psy4; Harry W. Loving, A&S3; James R. Lyle, Mgt4; Larry D. Lynch, Mgt3; Diane S. McKinney, Bio4; Helen E.

(Continued on Page 2)

Petition Deadline Set at 5 p.m. Today

Today at 5 p.m. is the deadline to submit petitions to the Student Government Association Election Committee for candidacy for class offices.

Class elections will be held, 9 a.m.-4 p.m., April 15.

Petitions should be returned to the SGA office, Student Center,

Moral Madness

City gendarmes last week raided the college's local "sin" cinema, arrested the theater's manager and his assistant and seized eight films which the vice squad charged were obscene and lewd.

Climaxed by a four-month investigation of the Lee Art Theater's bills of fare by members of the vice and intelligence squads, the raid resulted in the Lee being temporarily closed, but doors were opened again the next day with "Flaming Desire."

This week charges were filed against the theater's manager for "intent to show obscene and lewd films."

And so the City of Richmond rolls to a higher plateau of purity with its provincial regard for the morals of its citizens.

The United States in general has been criticized for years for its "closet sex" attitude. Sexual activity has never been openly discussed in the best of circles. A frank treatment has been avoided by parents, educators and the general citizenry—at least in public. What goes on behind closed doors in millions of homes across the country is anyone's guess, and sexologists have claimed that far more goes on than meets the public eye.

Our police force on the local scene has expounded "closet sex" in its so-called defense of the public morals.

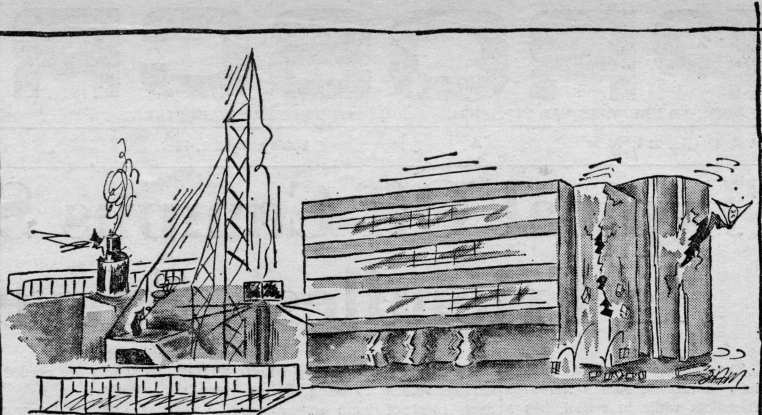

We have been to the Lee, and we have seen a few of the films billed as art movies. For the most part the offerings were poorly directed, produced, edited and generally boring. As an artistic experience they left us cold.

We are not defending the Lee nor the movies it has been showing. We are defending the movement for a more open attitude toward both normal and "abnormal" sexual activity.

The adult public has the right, we believe, to decide for itself what is a strike against its morals. Morals are highly personal, and when they are imposed—and defined—by a public agency, nothing results but an unhealthy conflict of public and private right and wrong.

In particular we would suggest the Lee be permitted to exhibit any film it desires, and the adult public should then have the right to decide if it is obscene or lewd according to personal standards.

The sanctity of the individual has been exploited in too many ways under the guise of claims it is "for the general good." It is high time this country began thinking anew in terms of its individuals.

... And the Walls Came Tumbling Down

Faculty Central Committee, Administrative Council Born

(Continued From Page 1)

majority favored the creation of a new Faculty Central Committee.

Those recently elected for three-year terms include James D. Pendleton, assistant professor of English; Russell A. Johnston, assistant professor of business; Dr. Robert G. Bass, associate professor of chemistry; Milton Cherry, associate professor of music and Donald H. Bowles, associate professor of retailing.

Elected for four two-year terms were Malcolm L. Murrill, associate professor of mathematics; Charles C. Renick, associate professor of fine arts; Allan A. Eastman, associate professor and department head of arts and crafts; Mrs. Margaret L. May, assistant professor of biology; and Dr. Dorothy E. Lee, associate professor of business.

Committee members who are to serve for one year are Dr. Joseph M. Aposhyan, associate professor of psychology; Miss Eleanor Wolfe, assistant professor of occupational therapy; Carroll R. Hormachea, assistant professor of sociology; Roy M. Carter, instructor of drama, and Jewett Campbell, assistant professor of commercial art.

Work on a constitution for the Central Committee got under way last week. Six subcommittees were appointed to conduct preliminary research in a number of areas.

121 Students on Dean's List

(Continued From Page 1)

Miller, Psy3; Rebecca D. Mitchell, Ret3; Robert B. Moffett, Codis1; Doris J. Mosby, Eled3; Howard M. Motley, Acc4; and B. W. Mountcastle, Soc2. Also Cecile S. Noble, H4; John R. O'Neal, Acc1; Frances D. Phillips, Secad2; Diane Pioro, H2; Andrea L. Pollard, Eled2; Helen D. Quinn, Soc4; June K. Ragland, Eed1; Gregg Alan Rice, A&S1; Gay L. Riggan, N1; Patricia Roesser, Adv3; George Rogers, Mgt2; Pauline Sherrill, N2; Norma Shully, Reh-Grad; R. B. Slassheimer, Soc4; Donald L. Smith, E4; Melvin I. Solomon, M2; William M. Spain, Engr1; Robert Stamback, Med4; Leslie C. Trinite, Codis1; and Sandra M. Uhrig, Bused2.

Also Claudia H. Vlar, Bused4; Johnny H. Wallace, Reh-Grad; Thomas D. Weible, H-Soc2; Patricia W. Whippo, Soc4; Sarah A. White, Soc3; Goldie Wilks, Eed3; and Dinah Wolfe, El. Others are: Elizabeth Allyn, Chem; Hopewell; Richard E. Ammons, J2 Virginia Beach; Virginia Atkinson, Dised3 McLean; Richard C. Bell, Draed3 Culpeper; Robin Blankenship, M2 Petersburg; Bernice Brooks, Eed3 Tappahannock; Mary E. Brownlee, ID3 Secane, Pa.; Sara J. Claycomb, OT2 Johnstown, Pa.; Constance Crawford, Ret4 Memphis, Tenn.; Donald M.

Davis, T1 Alexandria; Peggy A. Delly, OT1 Bethlehem, Pa.; Catherine M. Frye, A1 Fairmont, N. C.; and Evelyn Graham, Aed4 Staunton.

Also Eunice G. Holbert, Eed4 Hopewell; Meredith H. Hunt, Eled2 Chester; Daniel G. Jones, Eed4 Chester; Susan W. Kemper, Soc1 Magaheysville; Everett R. Langley, N4 Petersburg; Nancy J. Lewis, OT4 Newtons Square, Pa.; Edith E. Martins, Eled2 Chester; Raymond W. McCants, Adv2 Petersburg; and Beverly Miller, Coc2 Quicksburg.

Also Robert C. Morris, Ret2 Arlington; Rovin F. Morris, A2 Roanoke; Melanie A. Mudge, Ret3 Raleigh, N. C.; Marilyn J. Oakes, ID1 Blue Jay, W. Va.; Anna G. Phillips, OT2 Berlin, Md.; Jane K. Potter, ID2 Marion; Lawrence C. Pugh, Ret4 Arlington; Brenda A. Reynolds, Fash2 Newport News; and Carolyn Robinson, Fash3 Frederick, Md.

Also Linda P. Scott, Bused1 Hopewell; R. O. Shackelford, Gloucester County; Wayne K. Talley, Bus-Grad Mechanicsville; Harry S. Tush, T3 Hopewell; Raymond J. Verbit, Mgt1 Philadelphia, Pa.; Elizabeth West, Ret3 Emporia; Constance White, Soc Hagerstown, Md.; Emily B. White, Adv1 Virginia Beach; Maude A. White, Soc2 Portsmouth; Thelma P. White, Psy3 Newport News; and Gerald Wilson, T2 Alexandria.

Student Survey

(Continued From Page 1)

stories, one of which has been approved through a bond issue.

Construction of the 19-story building is expected to begin within several months. It will be located in the 700 block of West Franklin st.

However, according to the survey, only 30 per cent of those polled would want to live in it, and another 8 per cent were undecided.

PROSCRIPT

901 West Franklin st., Richmond, Virginia

C. Richard Harrison, Editor
Samuel Cary Shield, Managing Editor
Michael J. B. Slavick III, Business Manager
Randolph Vincent Goode, News Editor
Nancy May Thomas, Features Editor
Larry Ross Evans, Sports Editor
David A. Harvey, Photo Editor
Represented for National Advertising
by National Advertising Service, Inc.
420 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.
Member Virginia Intercollegiate Press
Published weekly (during the school year) except during holiday and examination periods.

WOULD YOU BELIEVE

that the Rotunda is for feasting?

WOULD YOU BELIEVE that it is a good place to have lunch? WOULD YOU BELIEVE that students goof-off and play cards in the Rotunda? WOULD YOU BELIEVE that students like to sit down and enjoy their lunch or snack? PLEASE let students enjoy their lunch or snack in the Rotunda—R.P.I. has better places to goof-off and play cards.

TIRED

OF THAT ASSEMBLY LINE CHOW?
READY FOR SOME REAL FOOD?
WE MEAN DELICIOUS FOOD!

For food that is better than just satisfying...

Food that has the mouth-watering appeal...

Food that fills the air with delicious, appetizing aromas... like that freshly baked apple pie...

Or that scrumptious tasting fried chicken...

Or that juicy, sizzling thick steak...

GO TO DUTCH'S

FOR THE FOOD YOU REALLY WANT

948 WEST GRACE STREET

Big Bully

Ken Cook, CA1 Newport News, demonstrates to an unidentified co-ed the ancient art of Karate. Cook, who holds a black belt in judo, gives karate and judo lessons to co-eds on Monday and Wednesday nights in order that the girls will have a means of self-protection.

Hornets, William & Mary Defeat Ram Golf Team

Through fair weather and foul, the golf team remains winless. Within the last week, the Rams have bowed twice by the score of 5-4 to the College of William and Mary and Lynchburg College in home matches.

With hot, sunny weather the squad lost its first match to W&M. Danny Dixon got off to the fastest start of his collegiate career with a one over par 72, winning medalist honors.

Monday, with sunny, but cold and windy weather, invading Lynchburg subdued the Rams. Once again Dixon won medalist honors with a 75.

The Rams next match is on April 12th, against Roanoke College.

Softball Tournament

The 15th annual College Fast Pitch Softball Tournament will be held Saturday, May 7 in Richmond. Any interested group should write State Softball Commissioner Hank Wolfe, 118 Seneca Rd., Richmond, Va., or call 282-0506 after 4:30 p.m. for details.

RPI STUDENTS

With IDs

A 10% DISCOUNT

on

LEE LEENS PANTS

and

ACME BOOTS

at

ELLMAN'S

Elgin 8-0655

3016 W. Cary St., Richmond, Va.

The

Headquarters for Selva Dance Wear and Western Wear

Ram's Late-Inning Play Provides Marginal Wins

The RPI sandlot gang came-from-behind in the last inning in three games and recorded its latest win in a slug-fest against North Carolina Wesleyan.

With two out in the bottom of the ninth inning, Mike Wolfrey hit the first pitch served to him into deep left-center field for a three-run home run to give the Rams a 3-2 victory over Mt. Union (Ohio) College last Friday.

RAMS RALLY

Going into the bottom of the ninth, the Rams had been held to two hits by the Raider's Jeff Phillips. The opening batter for the Rams, Steve Harris, drew a walk. Wayne Barnes went into run for Harris and immediately stole second. It seemed that the Ram's rally was going to be nipped in the bud when Kurt Jones struck out and Bill Gordon flied out to center-field, but pinch-hitter Joe Brodecki walked to keep the Ram's hopes alive. Wolfrey then knocked his home run to give the game its story book ending.

In the doubleheader against Southeastern (Mass.) College Wolfrey again was a major contributor to the Ram's victories collecting another three-run homer and two doubles as the Rams won both games in the final inning, 6-5.

LAST INNING WIN

In the first game the Rams were trailing, 5-3, going into the bottom of the seventh inning. After closing the gap to, 5-4, Billy Gordon hit a double to drive in Doug Spencer and Ron Woody to give the Rams another last inning victory.

The second game was a replay of the first when the Rams came to bat in the bottom of the seventh with Southeastern leading, 5-3. But, for the third straight game the Rams scored three runs in the last inning to capture the win. The drive was capped when Curt Jones scored the winning run on a fielders choice.

In Monday afternoon's game with North Carolina Wesleyan the Rams used a six-run first inning as a substantial cushion in gaining a 13-11 victory. Barry Winslow's home run with one out started the Ram's rally. The Rams then put together a walk and five straight singles in taking a 6-0 lead.

A home run by Jim Polk in the third inning and a walk and three consecutive singles in the fourth inning increased the Ram's lead to 9-0.

After North Carolina Wesleyan had scored three runs in the fifth inning and added two more in the top of the sixth, RPI came back in the sixth with two runs sparked by a triple by Steve Harris.

The Rams had seemingly put the victory away when they combined two singles and a double to score two runs in the seventh inning to increase their lead to 13-5. But Wesleyan wasn't about to give up.

In the top of the eighth inning Wesleyan used 11 batters to score six runs and pull to within two runs of the Rams.

Fighting Five Wins Intramural Play-off

The fourth seeded Fighting Five avenged a play-off lost for first position in the Men's Intramural Basketball Gray League by defeating the Sots, 67-64 for the intramural play-off championship.

The victory marks the first win in three games for the Fighting Five over the Sots.

The second seeded Sots jumped off to a quick 6-0 lead and at one time led by the score of 21-8. The Fighting Five came back to score 10 points to narrow the margin to 21-18. For the rest of the half the game was a see-saw affair with the halftime score 35-32 in favor of the Sots.

The Sots quickly increased the margin at the beginning of the second half and led by 15 points with 10 minutes remaining in the contest.

With five minutes to play the Sots held a 13 point lead but the Fighting Five, led by the outside shooting of Jerry Stone, cut the lead.

With 26 seconds Bill Farmer made both ends of a one-and-one to give the Fighting Five the lead for the first time, 65-64. The Sots missed a shot and Farmer was fouled again.

Farmer missed the free throw and Paul Kirby of the Fighting Five was fouled as he attempted to take a shot with four seconds remaining. Kirby sank both foul shots to ensure victory. A futile last second play by the Sots went array.

Stone had 19 points for the Fighting Five and Joe Lammay added 11.

The Sots placed three men in double figures as they lost their second game in 14 starts. The Fighting Five finished with a 12-2 record.

In reaching the finals the Fighting Five defeated Lafayette dorm, 82-53, and first seeded, previously unbeaten Yankees, 68-52. The Sots beat Circle K, 75-53, and the Transfers, 79-64, on the way to the finals.

Volleyball Season To Begin April 21

Wednesday, April 13, is the deadline for applications for the Men's Intramural Volleyball League.

Anyone interested should see Coach Buck Jones. The season begins the week of April 18. The games will be played on Wednesday and Thursdays.

Golf Schedule

April 12	—Roanoke College	Away
April 14	—Hampden-Sydney College	Away
April 15	—Bridgewater College	Away
April 18	—Randolph-Macon College	Home
April 19	—Old Dominion College	Home
April 25	—State meet, Hot Springs, Va.
May 5	—Randolph-Macon College	Away
May 6	—University of Richmond	Away
May 16-17	—NAIA Dist. 26 Tournament, Boone, North Carolina

Note: All home matches are to played at Lakeside Country club.

洗衣專家

LAUNDRY PROBLEMS?

Let William Seid solve all of your Cleaning and Laundry worries. Have the satisfaction of knowing that your clothes are being handled by experts in the old Chinese tradition of individual attention and personalized service. Stop in at one of William Seid's two convenient locations today.

SEID'S

Ideal Laundry and Cleaners

614 N. Sheppard Street

On Harrison — between Grove & Park

THE REGENT SHOP

RICHMOND'S PRESTIGE
TRADITIONAL SHOP

featuring the most looked-for labels, such as

H.I.S.
LEVIS
FARAH
MCGREGOR
JADE EAST

WIN A NEW 1966
HONDA

NOTHING TO BUY — STOP IN THE
REGENT SHOP AND REGISTER
10 SECOND PRIZES — PORTABLE
TRANSISTOR RADIOS

"Traditionally Yours"

1804 W. BROAD
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA
358-1546

Lloyd Shockley Mans Controls of Radio Station
William Williamson and Jon Camp Watch Activities

Campus Sound of Music Hits a Wiry Sour Note

The sound of music promised last month by the Radio club and the radio production class has had difficulty in being heard.

The system relies on wires which run from the station at 908 West Franklin st. to the various buildings on campus, but nothing has been heard because the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. has been unable to dispatch workmen to connect the necessary wires.

The company has now promised to have the wires connected by April 11, so the station can begin broadcasts after spring vacation.

The wires between the buildings on campus which do not run from utility poles have already been installed by the Radio club and radio production class. There are two speakers in the Student Center over which preliminary broadcasts have been heard.

Anyone interested in auditioning for announcing should contact Roger M. Lively, instructor of drama and speech.

Cast Recordings Of 'Richard III' Made Available

Shakespearean drama fans may listen to the original, full-cast recording of "Richard III," which has been recorded by the Department of Dramatic Art and Speech.

The cover design for the record, which is reminiscent of the setting for the play, was created by Joseph Stell, instructor in the drama department.

The record, which was recorded professionally by Richmond Sound Stages, is currently on sale to the public for $4. Release of the recording precedes the production of "Richard III," which will be presented by the department, April 20-23, in the former Scottish Rite Temple Theater.

Proceeds from the record sales will go to the department's Jack Joyce Scholarship fund, and copies may be purchased through any member of the drama department or by contacting Charles Massey, Dra2 Durham, N. C., chairman of record sales.

Exhibit Today On Instruments

The Instrument Society of America's Richmond-Hopewell division, in conjunction with the School of Engineering Technology, will present the seventh annual instrumentation and educational exhibit today.

The exhibit, 10 a.m.-9 p.m., in the gymnasium, will feature a tour of the new air conditioning and heating laboratory and the School of Engineering facilities. Tours will be held at 11 a.m., 1, and 8 p.m.

Some of the exhibitors include Robertshaw Controls Co.; Honeywell, Inc.; Meridan Electronics, Inc., and Valcon Sales Engineering Company.

Earlier in the week both high school and junior high school industrial arts instructors visited the school to view the heating and air conditioning systems,

Near Banana Doctor, 2 Co-eds Say Music Has Its Rewards

By Judy Thomason

Reward—discouragement—enjoyment—practice, practice, practice. These are the words used by three students who are members of the Richmond Symphony to describe music.

Mildred Christy, M1 Falmouth; Judy Miles, M2 Suffolk; and George Jacob, M3 Richmond, have had their embarrassing and disappointing moments, but as Judy says, "Music is my life. Just give me music and I'm happy."

These three students have proven their musical talent by their selection to the symphony, but there are other reasons too.

Judy was a member of all-state band for four years in high school and co-captain of the band in her senior year. She played the oboe last spring in the Virginia Museum presentation of "Fanny." In addition, Judy has been selected to attend the all-collegiate band at Shenandoah.

Mildred's honors include the high school Arion award, selection as outstanding bandsman for three years and a member of the all-state band for three years. In her senior year she was student director of her high school band.

BODY GUARD

Jacob's musical interest ranges from symphonic to rock-and-roll. Last year he played with Prince James and the Royal Knights and served as body guard for the Chart-busters.

Jacob considers his greatest reward from music "being sole tympanist for RPI." Mildred has been equally rewarded by "the opportunity to express my feelings through music and to share with others my enjoyment of it." Getting into the symphony is the point Judy marks as the height of her musical career.

The three agree, however, that music is not all reward, but there are some discouragements, failures and disappointments. Mildred summed up the feeling of the three when she said, "I have discouragements every day, but music is my whole life." Judy considers her greatest disappointment in music "not being able to make a suitable reed for my oboe."

Jacob almost decided against the musical field once. He studied tropical agriculture at the University of Hawaii in the hope of becoming a banana doctor.

MUSICAL FAMILY

Musical talent seems to run in the families. All members of Judy's family except her father play instruments or sing. Mildred's father played violin in an orchestra, and her mother was the church organist. Her brother and sister are music teachers.

Jacob feels that he may have inherited some of his musical talent from his great-grandfather from Syria. He played a flute-like instrument used to charm snakes in the battles with the Jewish and in the market for entertainment of the peddlers.

Each of the musicians has an ultimate goal—an achievement he would consider the height of his career. Jacob's greatest dream is to conduct. Playing in a big symphony orchestra is Judy's ambition. Mildred wanted to teach at first but now would like to perform.

What, then, has been the key to their musical success? In these three musicians' eyes there were three elements—love of music, dedication and practice, practice, practice and ancestors who charmed snakes.

Campus News Briefs

The Graduate Record examination will be given, 9 a.m., April 23, in the Science Building, room 115, it was announced this week by Dr. Walter R. Parker, associate professor of guidance and personnel work.

Applications may be picked up in room 201 of the Administration Building. They must be returned to Dr. Parker's office by April 13.

The Board of Visitors has commended two recent student activities.

The commendations, made at the Board meeting last week, concerned the extensive student participation in donating blood to be sent to Viet Nam, and the program and decorations of the Mid-Winters dance, which the board considered "very well done."

Miss Linda Harwell, a native of Ft. Worth, Tex., will join the faculty of the School of Music, it was announced by L. Wayne Batty, director of the school.

Miss Harwell, currently chief bassoonist for the Richmond Symphony Orchestra, received her bachelor of music education degree from Texas Christian University and her master's degree from Peabody Conservatory.

She will teach bassoon and direct the woodwind ensembles.

Talented, single co-eds from Chesterfield county are being sought to compete in the Miss Chesterfield Pageant which will be held, 7:45 p.m., April 23, in the Manchester High School auditorium.

Interested girls must be at least 18 years old and not over 21.

Miss Chesterfield will be a princess in the Tobacco Festival next October. If selected as queen of Tobaccoland, she will receive a $1,500 scholarship.

Interested co-eds may contact Mrs. Kathie Barker, 2307 Chillum Circle, Bon Air, phone 272-7293.

Plans Made to End Fall Registration

Students may not have to appear on campus for fall registration if a planned, stepped-up pre-registration from April 25 to May 6 proves accurate, C. Thomas Holloway, registrar, announced this week.

The same general procedure will be used for this pre-registration that has been used in the past, except students will fill out all registration materials (registration card, student information card, IBM statistical card and schedule cards) instead of completing some during registration.

The system will take a little longer than previous pre-registrations, but it will reduce the amount of time involved in registration in September, Mr. Holloway said.

Drama Department Head Directs Television Plays

Raymond Hodges, head of the drama department, has directed two one-act plays for television which will be presented Easter Sunday on WRVA-TV.

The plays are "The Man Who Denied Him" by Donald A. Mueller and "A Very Cold Night" by Dennis J. Winnie.

The first drama takes place on the way to the crucifixion and has a cast of three: Judy Culhan, Dra2 Dahlgren, Cheryl Rodda, Dra1 York, Pa., and Sam Cotten, Dra1 Vienna.

The second play is set in limbo and concerns the two men who were crucified on either side of Christ. The first man is played by Tim Anderson, Dra3 Ridgefield, Conn., and the second man by Hugh Williams, Dra1 Virginia Beach; the voice is Cotten's.

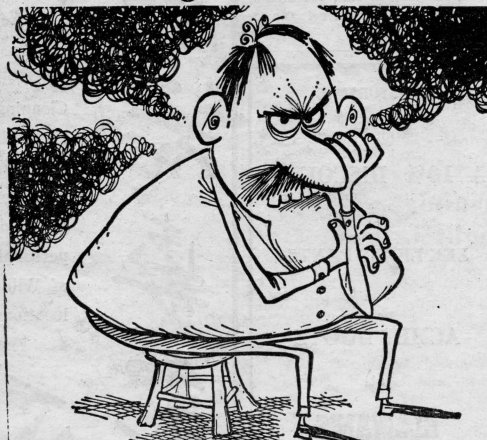

"R.P.I. students, don't be afraid! We have a student charge plan."

Friendly, Individual
Service
Custom Shirt
Finishing

Meadow
Laundry & Cleaners
Harrison & Grace

Thinking of a Haircut?

Hall's Barber Shop
Three Barbers on Duty

1017 W. Broad St.—Next To Shafer St.