MARY ANNE RENNOLDS CHAMBER CONCERTS

NEW YORK BRASS ARTS TRIO

Three world-class virtuoso soloists have come together to revolutionize the brass trio, and are being hailed as the first brass group ever to play with the sensitivity and musicality of a string quartet. Trumpeter Joe Burgstaller (formerly of Canadian Brass), french hornist David Jolley (founding member of Orpheus Chamber Orchestra) and trombonist Haim Avitsur (Symphony Magazine Emerging Artist) have forged together Classical, Light Classical and Classical/Jazz masterworks of all eras and adapted them for this fantastic and versatile instrumentation.

ABOUT THE GUEST ARTISTS

ROBERT BOGUSLAW has been active as a pianist/keyboardist in the Washington DC and Baltimore areas since 1991. Prior to moving to Maryland, Mr. Boguslaw received his bachelor's degree from the University of Miami and his Master's degree from the University of Kentucky, both in piano performance. From 1991 to 2013 he served as pianist for the "President's Own" US Marine Band. In this capacity he frequently performed at the White House and concertized nationally and internationally. Boguslaw has soloed with the National Gallery Orchestra, the McLean Symphony, the Lancaster Symphony, and the United States Marine Band. He has also performed with the Royal Philharmonic, the Baltimore Symphony, the St. Petersburg Symphony, the Kennedy Center Opera Orchestra, and for the New Hampshire Music Festival. He is the founding member of the "Rock Creek Trio" which performs frequently in the Washington DC area.

Boguslaw is also an active jazz pianist with two critically acclaimed CDs available on Summit Records and a third soon to be released. In jazz concerts he has performed with Wynton Marsalis, Paul Winter, Vinnie Colaiuta, Louie Bellson, and Vince Dimartino. He has served on the faculties of the University of Kentucky and the Landon School in Bethesda MD. He currently maintains an active teaching and performing schedule and resides with his jazz vocalist wife, Mary Boguslaw.

VINCE DiMARTINO is one of the most sought after trumpet performers and educators. Upon graduating from The Eastman School of Music in 1972, Professor DiMartino taught at the University of Kentucky until 1993. He then began a new appointment as Distinguished Artist in residence at Centre College in Danville, Kentucky. He retired in 2012 from his position as W. George Matton Professor of Music at Centre College where he taught trumpet, brass and jazz ensembles, and jazz history.

He has served twice as President and Vice President of The International Trumpet Guild as well as a member of its Board of Directors for two terms. He has made over a dozen solo appearances at The International Trumpet Guild Conferences as a principal performing artist.

Vince DiMartino is the recipient of The Governor's Lifetime Achievement Award in 2007-2008 for the State of Kentucky and The Case Kentucky Professor of the Year Award in 2004.

He continues to perform throughout the world as a trumpet soloist with orchestras, bands, and jazz ensembles. DiMartino has been a soloist with The Boston Pops, The United States Marine Band, The
