ABOUT THE ARTISTS

KATHY ROBINSON is going on her 15th year as the Orchestra and Guitar Director at Manchester High School in Chesterfield County, Virginia. During her time at Manchester the strings program has more than quadrupled in size. As co-founder of the Chesterfield All-County Guitar Festival she realized a lifelong dream of elevating the art of the guitar in the public school system. Mrs. Robinson holds a Bachelor of Music degree in classical guitar performance and Master of Music degree in music education from Virginia Commonwealth University. She has been an adjunct professor in VCU's Music Department for the past twenty years. Kathy lives in Powhatan with her husband David and her four children: Dylan, Spencer, Sammy and Daisy.

DAVID ROBINSON received his Bachelor of Music degree in composition and Master of Music degree in classical guitar performance from Virginia Commonwealth University. Mr. Robinson is the current Director of Guitar Studies at the Collegiate School in Henrico County, Virginia and adjunct professor in VCU's Music Department. During his time at the Collegiate School his guitar ensembles have been chosen to perform at the International Villa-Lobos festival and St. Joseph's Villa 75th anniversary celebration. Mr. Robinson is an avid composer and arranger and has had pieces performed by the VCU Guitar Ensemble, Latin Ballet of Virginia, Manchester High School Guitar Ensemble, Collegiate Guitar Ensembles, and the Richmond Guitar Quartet.

Over the past 18 years, the ROBINSON GUITAR DUO has been serving the community at weddings, parties, special events, and concerts. They have performed at the first Alexandria Guitar Festival, The Gellman Room, The Glen Allen Cultural Arts Center, and The Carpenter Theatre at Richmond CenterStage. The Robinson Guitar Duo has also performed extensively with the Latin Ballet of Virginia and are frequent guests on VCU's Guitar and Other Strings Series.
