VCU Jazz Day

VCU Jazz is now enrolling high school jazz musicians for VCU Jazz Day, an invitational event for which students from across the region come to VCU to work all day with a number of our faculty, create jazz combos, and perform at the end of the day. As in previous years, this event is by invitation from the VCU Director of Jazz Studies only and is focused on intermediate and advanced high school jazz students on Saturday, January 29, from 9:30a-4p. High school music directors may nominate their talented students. There is an informal concert by the students at 3p that day in Vlahcevic Hall; the public is invited, admission free.

Jazz Studies at Virginia Commonwealth University

The VCU Jazz Studies program provides its students outstanding opportunities to pursue jazz performance and writing, as evidenced in part by alumni who have performed with such artists as Chick Corea, Wynton Marsalis, Abbey Lincoln, Ray Charles, Count Basie Orchestra, Mandy Moore, k.d. lang, Bon Iver, and Foxygen; have appeared on Saturday Night Live, Conan O'Brien, The Daily Show, The Colbert Report, and David Letterman; have composed film, TV, and videogame scores; and who are superb educators, composers, and performers throughout local, national, and international venues. For more information, please visit <jazz.vcu.edu>; e-mail Prof. García at <ajgarcia@vcu.edu>.

VCU Greater Richmond High School Jazz Band

Plans have begun for the next season of the GRHSJB, with auditions planned for January 3-4 and the first rehearsal January 19. Under the direction of Prof. Toby Whitaker, the ensemble meets most Sundays 2-4p, plus a closing concert the afternoon of Saturday, May 7. Additional performances in past years have included The Carpenter Theatre, the Titan Jazz & Arts Festival, and outreach venues on the VCU campus; and the band has already been invited back to close the Titan Jazz Festival the evening of Saturday, April 23. If you're a high school student in the Richmond region interested in working with your peers from a dozen other high schools towards some swinging performances—or if you're a teacher of those students—please note these dates; and spread the word! More information is posted at <arts.vcu.edu/academics/departments/music/pre-college-programs/>.

Jazz 4 Justice™

VCU Jazz “Singleton Scholarships” for Fall 2022!

As a result of the generous gift from the late Mr. W.E. Singleton and his wife, Dale, new and sizeable “Singleton Scholarships” will be available to some of the Fall 2022 incoming class. This support represents the most significant financial assistance targeting jazz-related students in at least 25 years, if not unprecedented.

High school seniors and transfers can apply for entry to that Fall 2022 class at <go.vcu.edu/apply4music>. The faculty look forward to welcoming them to VCU Jazz! For more information about what you can do to assist our students, see the back cover of tonight's program.
